

Christian L. M. Watkins [christian.watkins@yale.edu] received her BA from the University of Kansas in sociology and religious studies. She is currently a Masters of Divinity student at Yale Divinity School (YDS). She lectured as a panelist for “American Slavery/American Freedom” hosted by Yale Black Student Alliance, Southern Connecticut State University (SCSU) Black Student Union, Phi Beta Sigma, and Yale University in 2012. She spoke as a panelist at SCSU for “Father Abraham: The Patriarch through a Jewish, Christian, and Muslim Lens.” Ms. Watkins served as a Yale Divinity student representative in partnership with the Egyptian Fulbright scholars at a YDS conference concerning “Egypt: ‘The Al-Azhar Document,’ ” “Women’s Rights after the Egyptian Revolution,” and “The State of the Middle East.” She hopes to continue assisting the United Nations Institute for Training and Research (UNITAR) on topics of peace and reconciliation; the most recent conference hosted by YDS and UNITAR: “Transformative Lessons in Transcending a Post-Conflict Environment.” Christian Watkins serves as a church planter and co-pastor for Ekklesia; a church affiliated with the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship, and works as a research assistant for Prof. Sallama Shaker, visiting professor of Middle Eastern and Islamic studies at Yale.