

Turan Kayaoglu received his BA from Bilkent University, Ankara, Turkey, his MA from the University of Denver, and his Ph.D. from the University of Washington, Seattle. He is a professor of international relations at the School of Interdisciplinary Arts and Sciences, and Associate Vice Chancellor for Research at University of Washington, Tacoma. He served as a visiting fellow at the Brookings Institute, Washington, DC, and visiting professor at Qatar University. His research explores international relations theory, international organizations, religion and international relations, and human rights. Dr. Kayaoglu is the Editor-in-Chief of Muslim World Journal of Human Rights and the author of Legal Imperialism: Sovereignty and Extraterritoriality in Japan, the Ottoman Empire, and China (2010, Cambridge University Press) and The Organization of Islamic Cooperation: The Politics, Problems, and Potential (2015, Routledge). His articles have appeared in edited volumes, including such journals as International Studies Quarterly; International Studies Review; Islam and Christian-Muslim Relations; Human Rights Quarterly; Muslim Minority Affairs; International Sociology; Review of Faith and International Affairs; and Politics and Religion.